

2008 Board of Directors, Advisors & Key Staff

Karen Johnson, CFP, President

Vice President, Colonial Wealth Management

Karen Johnson has over 13 years of experience in the financial industry and is a Certified Financial Planner® licensee who holds a Series 6, 7 and Insurance license. Karen has worked with ProVise Management Group and spent 10 years with First Union/Wachovia Bank, N.A., most recently as Vice-President in their Wealth Management Group. Karen is active in the community as Chairperson of the Producers Board at the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center, and Advisory Council member with both TBPAC and the Florida Orchestra. She and her husband Dan have lived in South Tampa for 10 years and have two children.

Ray Brown, Past President

Managing Principal, Legacy Consulting Group

Ray Brown is the founder and managing principal of Legacy Consulting Group, an independent healthcare consulting firm based in Atlanta. Ray draws on nearly 30 years of experience as a senior healthcare executive and management consultant providing counsel to healthcare systems and physicians in the areas of strategy, business and market development, and financial planning. Prior to founding LEGACY, Ray was a senior executive with the Kennestone Regional Healthcare System, and Managing Consultant with Cresap – Towers Perrin. Ray resides in Atlanta with his wife MaryAnne. They have two grown children.

Larry J. Williams, President Elect

President and CEO, Diagnostic Outpatient Centers, Inc., 'DOCs'

Larry J. Williams's service to the community has included: authoring the Radiologic Technology Licensing Act of 1978 for the state of Florida and serving on the Bi-Racial Advisory Committee for Pinellas County Schools. Larry was a finalist for the Chamber of Commerce Small Business Person of the Year Award, and in 1995, was elected to the St. Petersburg City Council, where he served as Vice Chairman and Chairman. Larry is currently focused on managing DOCs, which has grown from one center in St Petersburg, to include offices in Eustis, Leesburg, and Ocala. Larry has lived in St. Petersburg with his wife Pam for 44 years and they have five grown children.

Colin Shalin Ball, CCAT, CPAT, Treasurer & Secretary

Revenue Management Consultant, Gregory, Sharer & Stuart

Colin Ball is a revenue management consultant with the public accounting firm Gregory, Sharer & Stuart. With more than 20 years of experience in management and consulting, Colin has a diverse background in healthcare, information systems, and accounting. Colin's healthcare background includes nineteen years of reimbursement and accounts receivable management for private physician offices and groups, outpatient rehabilitation, laboratory, home health, and hospital facilities, including a Level I Trauma Center. Current memberships include the Radiology Business Managers Association, the Medical Group Management Association, and the American Association of Healthcare Administrative Management. Colin is a regular contributor to industry publications and a frequent speaker on topics related to medical practice management. Colin has been in the Bay Area for the past thirteen years and currently resides in Belleair Bluffs.

Quinn A. Henderson, Director

Attorney, Ruden McClosky

Quinn has been practicing law since 2003 and in his current position, focuses on construction, commercial, banking and administrative litigation. He represents developers, contractors, business owners and banks. Quinn is a graduate of Emory University (1993), and served as a U.S. Army officer from 1993 to 2003. While serving in the Army, Quinn graduated from both Airborne and Ranger School, and completed two tours in Bosnia-Herzegovina. He also served in the U.S. Army Reserves where he deployed to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba as a Company Commander and Intelligence Officer at Camp Delta. After completing his service to the country, Quinn returned to school and obtained his law degree from Florida State University. Quinn has previously served on the boards for the Historic Old Northeast Neighborhood Association (HONNA) and Kids Vote (Leon County), and is a member of the Florida Bar and the St. Petersburg Bar Association. He and his wife Manda have two children and have resided in St. Petersburg since May 2003.

J. Crayton Pruitt, Jr., MD, Director

Partner, Cardiac Surgical Associates- Clearwater

Dr. Pruitt attended the University of Florida, College of Medicine in Gainesville, where he received his Medical degree in 1981. Subsequently, Dr. Pruitt studied for five years at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City, where he completed his general surgery internship and residency. He remained at the University of Utah to complete his thoracic and cardiovascular surgery residency and graduated in 1986. Soon after, Dr. Pruitt moved to Clearwater to join Cardiac Surgical Associates. Dr. Pruitt is a Diplomate of the American Board of Surgery and the American Board of Thoracic Surgery. He is a Fellow of the American College of Chest Physicians. Dr. Pruitt believes in serving his patients using the latest technology and the highest degree of medical care. He and his wife Johanna live in Clearwater and have two children.

Drew Rector, Director

Vice President-Cardiovascular Services, HCA West FL Division

Drew Rector is Vice President for Cardiovascular Services for HCA's West Florida Division including 15 hospitals in the Tampa Bay Florida area. He is the principal internal strategist for the Tampa Bay Heart Institute and is responsible for growth and development of the health system's heart strategy. Drew formerly was Principal and Administrator of Cardiac Surgical Associates, the largest cardiac surgical group in Florida, and Chief Operating Officer for Ortho Carolina, based in Charlotte North Carolina. Drew is a native of Pinellas County and he and his wife Laurel currently reside in St. Petersburg and have one child.

Vinay Badhwar, MD, Scientific Advisor

Partner, Cardiac Surgical Associates- St. Petersburg

Chief of Cardiothoracic Surgery- Tampa Bay Heart Institute

Dr. Badhwar received his doctorate degree in 1993 from The University of Ottawa, followed by subspecialty training at McGill University, The University of Ottawa and The University of Michigan. His certification includes fellowships in general surgery, cardiothoracic surgery. He has further unique subspecialty training in mitral valve repair, heart failure surgery, and heart transplantation. Dr. Badhwar serves as Co-Chair for the annual Florida Valve Symposium, sponsored and hosted by the Tampa Bay Heart Foundation. Surgeons from around the U.S. visit Dr. Badhwar regularly to learn valve repair and atrial fibrillation surgical techniques, and he has authored multiple peer-reviewed publications and several book chapters in the area of mitral valve repair. Dr. Badhwar resides in St. Petersburg with his wife Jennifer and their two children.

Audrey C. Wood, MBA

Foundation Director, Tampa Bay Heart Foundation, Inc.

Audrey Wood has been with the Foundation since April, 2006. Her professional career has focused on client development and relationship management across a wide range of industry including: The Tallahassee Democrat, the state capital's major newspaper, Mainline Information Systems, the largest IBM Business Partner in North America, LearnSomething.com, an online education provider for firms, associations, and non-profits across the country, PricewaterhouseCoopers technology consulting division, and Keller Williams. Audrey holds a Bachelors Degree in Marketing and an MBA with concentrations in Corporate Social Responsibility and Management. Audrey has lived in St. Petersburg for eight years and currently serves on the board of directors of CASA-Community Action Stops Abuse, and is Treasurer of Business and Professional Women- St. Pete/Pinellas.